Mr. James I. Ballard

Dear Mr. Ballard:

General Smith has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 27 August, regarding [redacted]

[redacted] made application for employment with this Agency in July and on 18 July was advised that there were no suitable vacancies. However, in view of your letter, his application is again being processed to determine whether or not a vacancy has developed wherein his qualifications might be utilized. As soon as a decision is made [redacted] will be notified.

General Smith sends his best to you and appreciation your interest in the Agency.

Sincerely,

(SIGNED)

[redacted]
Executive Assistant to the Director
